Dear Ms LeVoy,

We acknowledge receipt of your e-mail of 30 October 2015, addressed to President Tusk, enclosing a joint open letter from 59 organisations in the fields of human rights, child rights, health and social inclusion, and the European Network of Ombudspersons for Children. We also wish to apologise for the delay in sending you our reply.

Thank you very much for your proposals on ensuring that children's rights are taken into account in EU migration policy.

The Presidency of the European Council is addressing the current crisis as a matter of priority and urgency and is deploying all its efforts to take the necessary actions to save the lives of migrants and refugees, as well as to ensure the full respect of their human rights and dignity, having as a basis the EU acquis in this field.

Yours sincerely,

The Public Information Service

Personal data protection: Mail received by the Public Information Service is treated in accordance with the provisions of Regulation (EC) No 45/2001 on the protection of individuals with regard to the processing of personal data by the Community institutions and bodies and on the free movement of such data (Official Journal L 8 of 12.1.2001, p. 1). Personal data in your mail will be used by the Public Information Service solely for the purpose of handling your request. However, some inquiries may also be directed to an official of the EU institutions or of the Presidency of the Council of the European Union who is competent to reply to a particular question.

For statistical purposes your mail will remain in the unit's archives for a maximum duration of 5 years, after which it will be destroyed. You have the right to access and rectify the data concerning you by contacting the Public Information Service (tel.: +32 2 281 56 50, Head of Unit: Ms Inés Hempel) and the right to have recourse to the European Data Protection Supervisor.
